RE: Millan v. Citigroup, Inc., et al.
Case No.: 07-CV-3769

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

We represent Defendants Citigroup Inc. and Citigroup Technology, Inc. in the above referenced matter. On January 31, 2008, the parties sent Your Honor a joint letter, and Plaintiff requested that the Court extend his deadline to depose Defendants' Rule 30(b)(6) designee until February 7, 2008. On February 7, 2008, Your Honor entered an endorsed letter granting Plaintiff's request, and Your Honor ordered the parties to submit a stipulation providing a precise calendar of submissions.

We write to respectfully request that the Court adopt the enclosed Joint Stipulation And Order Regarding Discovery And Briefing Of Dispositive Motions. Specifically, we write to request that Your Honor extend the deadline for Plaintiff to depose Defendants' Rule 30(b)(6) designees until February 20, 2008 because one of Defendant Citigroup Technology, Inc.'s two corporate designees had a medical condition and could not appear for his deposition until the week of February 18, 2008. Plaintiff has indicated that he will not object to this request for an extension.

Despite the postponement of the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition, Defendants intend to submit their motion for summary judgment on February 22, 2008. Currently, the Court has scheduled a status conference for February 22, 2008. Defendants respectfully request that Your Honor continue the status conference until the Court holds oral argument on Defendants' motion for summary judgment. Plaintiff has indicated that he does not oppose this request.

Finally, we have enclosed another copy of the Confidentiality Agreement and Order for Your Honor's consideration that the parties submitted for the Court's consideration on January 9, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,
